A College Song. Come, lazy undergraduates, That haunt fifth-storey attics, And Fellows wise, that pad your pates With Greek and Mathematics. Chorus. With red, red wine, come, crown your bowl, Here s to musty knowledge, Quaff the cup with swelling soul, A bumper to the College! We ll toast the wise man and the fool The Arts men, and the masters: The budding doctors from The School, Who deal in knives and plasters. We ll next drink to St. Stephen s staff, And all must compliment em; The jokes would make a dead man laugh. Here s luck to those who sent em. The Football Club we ll honour next. Though, I m afraid, the fact is, (But breathe it low, they might get vexed) Their theory beats their practice. Next toast the men who parley-vous, The Franco-Irish nations, Who walk each Sunday, two by two. For silent meditation.
