Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Baldwin Hills Housewives lives in a up-scale community in the County of Los Angeles, California. It is a story of five women that supports each other personally and professionally without hesitation. Shonna Dupree practices Family Law. She takes on clients and fights to win as she is struggling through her own divorce. Her husband Ron Dupree divorces her for someone he has fallen in love with, a man. Robin Flanigan is a successful Real Estate Agent with a background that only one housewife knows about. She gets a phone call from Child Services; her cousin died and left her eight year old daughter for her to take in. Robin knows nothing about raising children. The father is believed to be dead, until one evening a stranger rings her doorbell. Sky Landers and her husband Monte has a wonderful marriage. Monte owns his own Construction Company. The job is completed and he drives home from Las Vegas, and arrives in LA, only blocks away from his home. He stops at a florist to buy roses for Sky and is caught up in a dangerous robbery. Karla St. James and her husband Martin are happily married. Karla is a bestselling novelist; Martin has his own publishing company. They are financially secured, but Karla has one secret, she shoplifts in different malls. Candace Brown and her husband Kenneth are a close, religious family, the pillar of the community. The ladies respect Candace for her wisdom and encouragement. Although the housewives have different views about life, they will be friends forever.
