Congressional Sales Office, 2002. OCLC Number: (OCoLC)51198914 Subject: Administrative agencies -- United States -- Rules and practice. Excerpt: . . . 11 The Card memo and its implementation raise a number of con-cerns - some legal, others related more generally to whether the ad-ministration displayed a sufficiently healthy respect for the regu-latory process. Perhaps the most troubling aspect of the Card memo was its instruction regarding its third category - final rules that had been published but had not yet taken effect - a category applicable to two rules discussed later in this report: The roadless area conservation rule and the arsenic rule. B. Legal Concerns By instructing agencies and departments to change the effective date of substantive rules, the Card memo erroneously suggested that agencies have greater authority to unilaterally alter final rules which have not yet become effective than they have over those al-ready being implemented. There is no basis for such a distinction. Under the APA, a rule is final...
