Good e-book and helpful one. It can be written in basic phrases rather than confusing. I realized this ebook from my i and dad recommended this book to find out.

Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Whoever said there s no royalty in America never lived with a Dachshund. And there is no Dachshund more regal, more observant, more adventurous, and more willing to oversee a household than MarcyMary, the true Dachshund American princess. And yes, Marcy Mary has written a tell-all. Destined to follow in the paw-steps of her best-in-show mother, Marcy Mary is accidentally abandoned in a snowy forest. Rescued from the road, she is given over to a family of two-leggeds, the Anthonys. Marcy Mary soon learns that her new pack lacks her gift for two-way communication(after all, she understands their every word). They allow a Siamese cat to live amongst them(unfortunately, the feline is quite conversant). And Dad is slow to recognize the honor of sharing one s bed with an auburn purebred Dachshund with a delightfully cold, wet nose. Someone of lesser breeding would collapse under the stress, but Marcy Mary s exceptional qualities come through even as a young puppy. A canine of contradictions, Marcy Mary is earthy yet spiritual, witty but wise, a gourmand who is an opportunistic diner. Above all she is a keen observer of the world she shares with her family and friends. And she never forgets the wisdom and grace of the Creatorwho watches all creatures-the two-leggeds and those with four, perfectly proportioned legs. Marcy Mary explains her special role in the human world-to teach, protect and love the Anthony family as only a Dachshund princess can. And she spares no details about her personal acquaintances both wild and domestic, including a suitor from the wrong side of the fence. (Oh, the scandal!)
