Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Chemistry Embracing the Metals and Elements Which Are Not Metallic I was formerly a bookseller and binder, but am now turned philosopher which happened thus: whilst an apprentice, I for amusement learned a little chemistry and other parts of philosophy, and felt an earnest desire to proceed in that way further. After being a journeyman for six months under a disagreeable master, I gave up my business, and through the interest of one Sir H. Davy filled the situation of chemical assistant to the Royal Institution of Great Britain, in which office I now remain, and where I am constantly employed in observing the works of Nature, and tracing the manner in which she directs the order and arrangement of the world. On the 18th March, 1813, it was resolved That Michael Faraday be engaged to fill the situation lately occupied by Mr. Payne, on the same terms. Faraday accompanied Sir H. Davy to Rome, and was re-engaged by the Royal Institution managers on the 15th May, 1815; and as his first private and original...
