By Elizabeth Doyle Solomon

CEDAR CREEK PUB, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 211 x 135 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Elizabeth Doyle Solomon s poems are love letters with a passion for nature and family. Her clear voice reaches deep into the music and rhythms of the natural world as it sings of such things as a hawk s tail writing on autumn skies and galloping spring-flooded streams. It bristles with a lover s protest at earth scraped raw in the name of progress. The heart of this collection is rich with family memories: Mama s fragile strength, Daddy s playful Irish brogue, Grandma, who faced sorrow by giving grief to the prairie winds. Their courage and wisdom speak to us still in the poignancy and joy of Elizabeth s poems. - SUNDAY ABBOT, Award Winning Poet.
