This item is printed on demand - Print on Demand Neuware - Essay from the year 2005 in the subject Business economics - Marketing, Corporate Communication, CRM, Market Research, printed single-sided, grade: 72 % - A, University of Sunderland, course: Global Corporate Strategy, language: English, abstract: Ryanair was founded in 1985 as a family business that originally provided full service conventional scheduled airline services between Ireland and the UK. The airline started to compete within the confines of the existing industry by trying to steal customers from their rivals, especially the state monopoly carrier Air Lingus, outlined by Chan Kim and Renée Mauborgne (2004) as Bloody or Red Ocean Strategy. Ryanair seemed to follow a me-too strategy; according to Osborne, K. (2005), they tried to be all things to all people. Even they started restructuring; their strategy was not enough differentiated and their cost advantage was too low to be profitable. Ryanair then created a competitive advantage through the alignment of the three components of business systems; 1) Creating superior value for their customers (outside perspective) 2) Supplying their superior value-adding activities in an effective and efficient...
