Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.It's a dog's life when a lovable golden retriever named Jake finds himself left by the side of the road in South Carolina, and all he can think about is finding his way back home. So begins the dramatic adventure of this warm-hearted, gentle-natured dog in search of a master in a strange new territory. A Golden Tale re-imagines the life and times of author Roni Papian's own beloved golden retriever, Mr. York, from the harrowing experience of abandonment to the newfound joy of finding the perfect family. Written for the children's market, ages eight to twelve, A Golden Tale offers an endearing and insightful foray into the world of our four-legged friends from a canine perspective that is certain to delight animal lovers of all ages. After Jake's master Beau learns from a veterinarian that his loyal companion is very sick, Beau makes a rash decision that he will live to deeply regret. The young man ushers his sidekick into his truck, drives miles away from home, and leaves Jake to find...
