I continued on at a good smart pace, and, after I had walked 12 miles, I passed a tavern where I noticed their buggy, but I went on my way without stopping. They however, saw me, and called for me to stop and take something to drink. I replied that I did not drink anything, but I went into the tavern with them. Here said one of them, handing me a dollar, here is a present for you, as you are such a smart walker, I shall be glad to see you when you arrive in town. He gave me his address, and the two gentlemen rode on. While walking alone upon the road, my thoughts would be continually employed, sometimes planning schemes for future operation, sometimes in reflection on past events, on parents, home and friends, and sometimes...
