The Registers of the Parish extend from the date 1542 almost without interruption to the present time. Many curious entries in these registers refer to old customs more or less intimately connected with the town, among which are the following: --The Kyngham. This was a kind of drama performed at the expense of the Churchwardens; after which a collection was made for the benefit of the parish. The following entries refer to it: -- s. d. Be y in mynd that ye 19 yere of Kyng Harry ye 7, at ye geving out the Kynggam by Harry Bower and Harry Nycol, chercwardens, amounted clerely 4 2s. 6d. of that same game. Mem.
