Excerpt: . make on scenes so fair; But even here a little part Of heaven is found within the heart Where Christ abides, a wondrous joy, A peace, which death cannot destroy. This makes the desert blossom bright, And morning out of hideous night, Unto the Christian, as he brings To savage man, this peace he sings. Trouble may rise, clouding the light, Veiling the sun in shades of night, And fortune flee, and friends be few, And earth display few charms to view. But peace abides, tho tempests blow, Who friendless is when Christ s below? He curbs the storm with gentle will, Saying, Be hush d! Ye waves, be still! O peace and joy, how rich the part! This heaven above and in the heart. Down Deep. BOWN deep in the cold, blue sea y Are beautiful treasures lying, And the winds roll o...
